

The Royal Society of Tasmania – Northern Branch

2020 LAUNCESTON LECTURE SERIES

LECTURES COMMENCE AT 1.30* PM – QVMAG @ INVERESK

**START TIME VARIES AS SHOWN BELOW*

FEBRUARY 23

Ngairé Hobbins

'Live It Up' – eating to stay active, engaged and independent as you age

** ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING 1.15 pm, March 22 ****

Cancelled due to COVID-19 pandemic restrictions

MARCH 22, APRIL 26, MAY 24, JUNE 28 lectures

Cancelled due to COVID-19 pandemic restrictions

PROGRAM RESUMED ONLINE USING ZOOM

** ANNUAL QVMAG STAFF LECTURE ****

JULY 26

Andrew Parsons

'Map Spam' – (yet more of) Launceston Revealed

** 2020 SCIENCE WEEK FORUM, August 23 ****

AUGUST 23

PhD Candidates

University of Tasmania

Duyen Tran

Indika Fernando

Christelle Auguste

'Breaking New Ground'

'Diabetes' – a new opportunity for reducing the incidence of Type 2 Diabetes in the obesity epidemic

'A bumpy road to perfect fruits' – overcoming the banana's long journey from farm to supermarket

'Tidal energy is coming to Tasmania' – renewable energy from the ocean

SEPTEMBER 27

A/Prof Michael Breadmore

'Chemical Answers Now' – protecting us and our environment

OCTOBER 25

Ian Knight, David Maynard,
Simon Fearn

'Butterfly Brilliance' – the Lambkin/Knight collection – nationally significant gift to QVMAG?

NOVEMBER 22

Prof Henry Reynolds

'Patriotism and Place in 19th Century Tasmania' – institutional, ethnic, or the often overlooked but continuing aspect – a commitment to place?